

Dragon Games

Catherine Faber

$\text{♩} = 140$

We've all heard in days of old, dra-gons hoar-ded gems and gold, Stra-te-gies the dra-gons use, ne-ver make it to the news,

5 Knights in ar-mor came to scold but ne-ver quite got rid. But when re-vol-vers That's hy hu-mans some-times lose, — play-ing dra-gon games. The pawn that can-not 10 made it big, they had to drop the dra-gon gig, And find an-oth-er game to rig an see the board, dra-stic moves can ill af-ford, Cau-tion is-n't un-to-ward with 15 I know what they did. Gra-ven in the dra-gon brain, prin-ci-ples and our fi-nan-cial claims. Some-one may be wat-ching us, hid-den in the 20 rules ar-cane, Loans and in-terest do con-strain, fu-tures, rates and rents cum-u-lus, Rob-bing banks is dan-ger-ous and ob-vi-ous-ly so.

25 They're the tal-loned hand that pulls — strings of mar-ket bears and bulls, — Ne-ver touch a dra-gon's hoard, ex-cept when you are gro-wing bored With 29 They're fi-nan-cial na-tur-als, — does-n't that make sense?

li-ving, for with one ac-cord, the dra-gons al-ways know.