

Hydrogen Burns

Catherine Faber

Allegro

Put out that ci - gar! What a fool thing to do. That's a Your u - ni - form's not what you'd wear on the ground, You will I know what you're thinking; not what you'd wear on the ground, You will Some fly and some smoke, though it's bad for the heart. The 5 hell of a note buck - les your first day on the crew! The no - tice that who do both damn well keep them for a part. Now rules that who do both damn well keep them for a part. Now those that who do both damn well keep them for a part. Now

9 Ev - 'ry man Jack and girl Jen - ni - fer learns But but - tons are wood - en; it's not for a lark, am. But your I'm sym - pa - the - tic; no real - ly, I am. But your Crew mem - bers might, and I'll see that they do, Take 14 Air - ship! No Smo - king! 'cause hy - dro - gen burns!

all to make cer - tain you won't strike a spark. damn.
mates and the hy - dro - gen don't give a damn.
care - less - ness per - son - al, com - ing from you.

19 Hy - dro - gen burns that's the cause for the codes, and in pro - per pro - por - tion with air, it ex - plodes You

23 won't get two war - nings let this one sink in, Be thank - ful you leave with your guts in your skin! _____