

Seneca Falls

Catherine Faber

♩=160
freely

D A7 D G D

Five wo - men sat talk - ing at af - ter - noon tea. One spark a great They bor - rowed a Me - thod - ist Cha - pel, but were, Locked out by mis - They laid out a bold de - clar - a - tion of rights And sen - ti - ments
A fi - re too ma - ny times smo - thered this theme, As ma - ny time fire - ig - nites. They de - ci - ded to hold a con - ven - tion to take on that day. Beth's ne - phew crept in through the win - dow for a - ny must note, Their meth - od to set the in - jus - tice to leapt up a - new. But of all of the peo - ple who signed for the 12 G D A D G

6 A D A7 D

be, On wo - men's con - di - tion and rights It must have seemed her, And let them all in the back way. As Li - ber - ty rights, Pro - posed gi - ving wo - men the vote. And one hun - dred dream, Just one lived to see it come true. But some - times it prac - tic - ally cra - zy to try, so dif - ferent their lives in that dis - tant Ju - barred from de - bate will dis - patch A friend through the win - dow - to lift up the peo - ple signed on to it then, Six - ty - eight wo - men and thir - ty - two hap - pens the works we be - gin Take more than one life - time to fin - al - ly

18 D A D

24 A D A7 D G D

ly. latch, men. win. Now a world great - ly bet - tered in hon - or re - calls the Wo - men's Con -

31 A D

ven - tion at Se - ne - ca Falls